

Chinese Police's Participation in UN Peacekeeping Operations

International Cooperation Department

Ministry of Public Security

October, 2013

Scope of Presentation

- Overview of the participation
- Leadership and responsibilities
- Selection and recruitment
- Pre-deployment training
- Experience in training
- Chinese police performance

1. Overview of Participation

- 1998.6 decision-made
- 1999.5 commencement of training
- 2000.1 first deployment to UNTAET
- 2001.1 first deployment to UNMIBH
- 2001.4 founding of the Special Committee for Peacekeeping Affairs within the MPS
- 2003. 12 first deployment to UNMIL
- 2004.1 first deployment to UNAMA
- 2004.4 first deployment to UNMIK,
- 2004.5 first deployment to MINUSTAH
- 2004.10 first deployment of FPU to MINUSTAH
- 2005.5 first deployment to UNMIS
- 2011.7 first deployment to UNMISS
- 2013.9 first deployment of FPU to UNMIL

Deployment (2000 to date)

2. Leadership and Responsibility

3. Selection and Recruitment

Selection Criteria

Pre-deployment Procedure

4. Pre-deployment Training

UNPOL Course

- Core Pre-deployment Training Material
- Specialized Training Modules
- Basic skills: English, driving, weapon handling and shooting
- Policing Skill
- Mission Background
- SOP
- Cultural awareness
- Team Building
- Etc.

FPU Training

Two phases

- First phase: 1 month
- separate course for different groups
  - Commanders: to study about mission and task
  - Duty officers: to focus on language study
  - Logistics officers: to familiarize with new equipments, facilities and weapons
- Second phase: 2 months
- collective course for the whole unit

FPU Course

- Theoretical: Introduction to Peacekeeping, Mission background, tactical theory, Human rights and Law enforcement, discipline and etiquette, stress management
- Operational: FPU guidelines, SOP, Rules of Engagement, Operation Plan, crowd control, VIP safeguarding, convoy escort, checkpoint, person and premise search, armed patrol, emergency evacuation, first aid, special skills and tactics.

China Peacekeeping Police Training Center
Established in March 2001
Located in Chinese People's Armed Police
Academy, Lang fang, 50 KM South of Beijing
Investment: about $25 Million

5. Experiences in Training

- Capacity building of the trainers
  - Field experience in UN missions
- International exchange and cooperation
  - Going out to learn
  - Inviting experts to help
- Experienced police peacekeepers as part-time trainers
- Seminars and workshops

5. Chinese Police Performance

Many Thanks!