

The 6th ARF Peacekeeping Experts' Meeting

Opening Remark

Good morning Ladies and Gentlemen and Welcome all ARF participants

First of all, I am delight to attend this special event at a beautiful city of BEIJING and also, I would like to express my sincere thanks to my partner Senior Colonel GAO TONG, to be a co-chair of this meeting.

I come here not to lecture or make any impressions to all of you, but to sharing about my country commitment and goodwill to strengthen our regional cooperation in Peacekeeping Operations that is very difficult to maintain with a sustainable Peace, stability and security in this complex environment.

In the next few days, I urge all of you should interact to one-another with open mind in bounding together and to identify the theme of this forum. And hopefully, by the end of this discussion, we can discover a new pathway in promoting Peace, Stability and Security in the region through Sharing Experiences, Best Practices and Lesson learnt that we endower a difficult time to identify a missing gap in endorsing this joining effort to peacekeeping operations in the constituency.

Once again, before I am closing my remark, I would like to take this opportunity to show appreciation to my co-host that arranges this distinctive occasion in transpiring today.

And I am looking forward to working with you and hopefully can reach a fruitful conclusion.

Enjoy staying and God Bless you
