

Brunei Darussalam Cooperation and Collaboration on Maritime Domain Awareness

National Maritime Coordination Centre

08 March 2018

Scope

01

INTRODUCTION

- Brunei Maritime Security concerns

02

CURRENT EFFORTS

- NMCC initiatives in Maritime Domain Awareness

03

CHALLENGES

- NMCC challenges in its Maritime Security role

04

INITIATIVES

- Initiatives in Maritime Domain Awareness

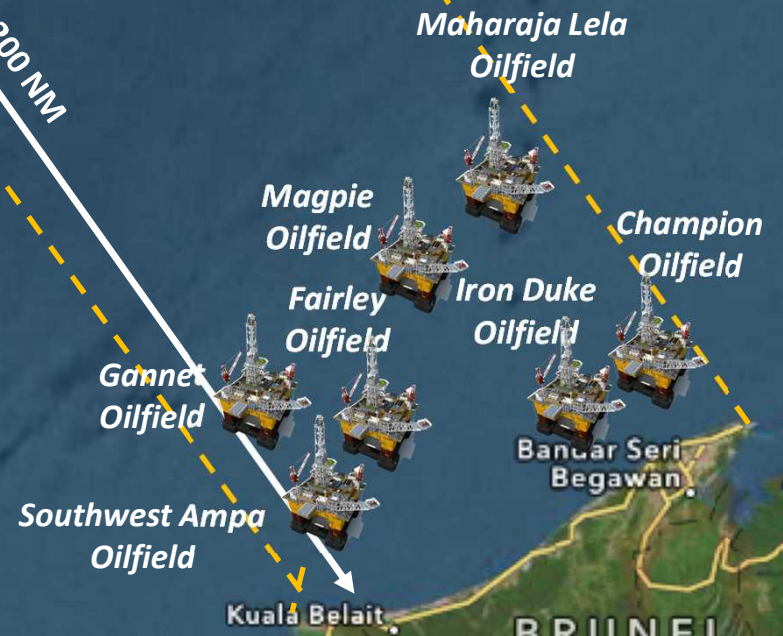

Introduction

BRUNEI
DARUSSALAM

A maritime nation, and its national economy, commerce and security is reliant on the stability of the maritime domain

200 NM

Brunei Maritime Security Concerns

Piracy & Sea Robbery

- Sea Lines Of Communications hotspots

Maritime Terrorism

- Regional Terrorist Groups

Drugs & Contraband Trafficking

- Porous Maritime Borders

IUU Fishing

- Local & Foreign

Marine Pollution

- Tier 3 Oil Spill

Diverse Solution to Maritime Domain Awareness Challenges

Improved Coordination and Collaboration

Information Sharing

Regulations

Law Enforcement

Capacity Building

Activities are staged at Inter-Agency level cooperation and Regional

Efforts – Collaboration & Support of National Stakeholders

- Collaborates with National Maritime Law Enforcement Agencies
- Complex Nature of Maritime Security – A Concerted Inter-Agency Effort amongst all Maritime Stakeholders
- Tap on experience & expertise of Maritime Agencies for a comprehensive solution

Efforts – Professional Exchange

- Enhancing cooperation with international partners
- Enhancing cooperation between respective maritime coordination centres
- Through info-sharing and dialogue
- Leveraging on existing ASEAN Frameworks
 - ARF, ADMM Plus, Expanded ARF and East Asia Summit

Engaging with its international partners

Benefits through Information
Sharing, Professional Knowledge
Sharing, Promoting Regional Security

Efforts – Information Sharing Initiatives

- Provides actionable information on Maritime Security Threats
- Knowledge Repository
- Enhance Situational Awareness Sense-Making
- Provide linkage with International Maritime Stakeholders & OPCEN's

Challenges

COMMON OPERATING NETWORK

COMMON OPERATING PROCEDURES

INTER-AGENCY CHALLENGES

INFORMATION & INTELLIGENCE SHARING

INTEGRATED PLANNING & EXECUTION

Initiatives - Networking

Engagement in Seminars / Workshop / Dialogue

- Confidence building measures
- Sharing of best practices

Information Sharing

- International Liaison Officer
- Info-Sharing Web Portal
- Situational awareness through networking

Initiatives – Whole of Government Approach

- Improve Inter-agency processes
- Validate Decision-Making & internal process
- Common Operating Procedures
- Enhance information sharing
- Review Maritime Enforcement agencies Legal Framework

Conclusion

- ❑ Maritime Security Responsibility
 - The Nation's Responsibility

- ❑ Vulnerability of Brunei Maritime Domain
 - Brunei Maritime Security Challenges

- ❑ Development of NMCC and National Partners
 - Common Security Challenges

- ❑ Effects of Globalisation and Interconnectivity
 - Brunei's Commitment to Regional Maritime Security

Thank You