Agenda (DRAFT)
Canada – Singapore Workshop on Principles of Building Security in the Use of ICTs in the National Context
June 25-26, 2019 (TBC)
Singapore

Tuesday June 25

OPENING SESSION
Workshop overview and objectives, introductions

MORNING SESSION
Session 1 – Threats to security in the use of ICTs: Trends and tendencies

Session 2 – Towards cohesive principles of building security in the use of ICTs in the national context: International and regional considerations

--Lunch--

AFTERNOON SESSION
Session 3 – Cohesive principles of building security in the use of ICTs in the national context: National approaches from the ARF region and beyond

Session 4 – Conceptualising and developing national strategies on security in the use of ICTs: Sharing ARF member state experiences and lessons learned

Wednesday June 26

MORNING SESSION
Session 5 – National Cybersecurity Strategies in Focus: Computer emergency response teams, critical infrastructure protection and national coordination mechanisms

--Lunch--

AFTERNOON SESSION
Session 6 –Crisis affecting the use of ICTs: Implications for building security in the use of ICTs in the national context (Simulation Exercise)

Conclusion

The draft agenda is for ARF Participating Countries' inputs. Please send in your inputs by 5th April 2019 to Zoe.Tupling@international.gc.ca, Arthur.David@international.gc.ca, yip_ka_man@csa.gov.sg and intan_mohd_tawfik@csa.gov.sg.