

Annex 1

ASEAN Regional Forum (ARF) Workshop on Medium to Long Term
Support for Victims of Terrorism
7-8 February 2017 | Manila, Philippines

AGENDA

Tuesday, 7 February – Conservatory Room, Peninsula Hotel
08:30-09:00	Registration, coffee &amp; tea served
09:00-09:15	Welcome by the Co-chairs <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Ariel Y. Abadilla, Undersecretary for Civilian Security and Consular Concerns, Department of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of the Philippines</li> <li>• John Foster, Bureau of Counterterrorism and Countering Violent Extremism, U.S. Department of State</li> </ul>
09:15-09:30	Introduction to the workshop <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Jason Ipe, Deputy Director, Global Center on Cooperative Security</li> </ul>
09:30-10:30	Panel 1: International and regional frameworks relating to the rights of victims of terrorism Moderator - Roy Ecraela, Department of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of the Philippines <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Dr. Arturo Laurent, Programme Officer, Terrorism Prevention Branch, Division for Treaty Affairs, United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC)</li> <li>• Dr. Julie Benmakhlof, Consultant, United Nations Counter-Terrorism Center, UN Victims of Terrorism Support Portal</li> </ul>
10:30-11:00	Coffee &amp; tea break and group photograph
11:00-12:00	Panel 2: Medical and psychosocial support to victims of terrorism over the medium to long term – Governmental and nongovernmental experts will present on the medium to long term medical and psychosocial needs of victims and how governments can assist in responding to those needs. Moderator – Jason Ipe, Global Center on Cooperative Security <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Dr. Low Kwai Siong, Emergency and Trauma Department, Hospital Tengku Ampuan Rahimah Klang, Selangor, Ministry of Health Malaysia</li> </ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Dr. Bernardino Vicente, National Center for Mental Health of the Republic of the Philippines</li> <li>• Max Boon, Co-Founder, Aliansi Indonesia Damai (AIDA)</li> </ul>
12:00-13:00	Breakout group discussion: Participants will break into groups to share experiences with regard to their national models for providing medial and psychosocial support to victims in the context of a case scenario.
13:00-13:30	Reporting back to the plenary
13:30-14:30	Lunch
14:30-15:30	Panel 3: Financial and nonfinancial support and compensation for victims of terrorism – Governmental and nongovernmental experts will present on the medium to long term financial needs of victims, issues around compensation for victims, and ways in which governments have dealt with these issues. Moderator – John Foster, Bureau of Counterterrorism and Countering Violent Extremism, U.S. Department of State <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Melissa Snow, Office for Victim Assistance, Federal Bureau of Investigations</li> <li>• Jérémy Bridier, Association française des Victimes du Terrorisme</li> </ul>
15:30-16:00	Coffee &amp; tea break
16:00-17:00	Breakout group discussion: Participants will break into groups to share experiences with regard to their national models for providing financial support and compensation for victims of terrorism in the context of a case scenario.
17:00-17:30	Reporting back to the plenary

Wednesday, 8 February - Conservatory Room, Peninsula Hotel
09:30-10:30	Panel 4: Supporting victims of terrorism through the criminal justice process – Governmental and nongovernmental experts will discuss how to support the rights of victims through the criminal justice process and different ways in which governments have balanced those with the fair trial requirements. Moderator – Florentino P. Manalastas Jr, Anti-Terrorism Council-Program Management Center <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Juan Pedro R. Navera, Senior Assistant, State Prosecutor</li> <li>• Andria A. Kerney, Attorney Advisor, U.S. Department of Justice, National Security Division, Office of Justice for Victims of Overseas Terrorism</li> </ul>
10:30-11:00	Coffee &amp; tea break

11:00-12:00	Breakout group discussion: Participants will break into groups to share experiences with regard to their national models for supporting victims of terrorism through the criminal justice process in the context of a case scenario.
12:00-12:30	Reporting back to the plenary
12:30-14:00	Lunch
14:00-15:00	Panel 5: Empowering victims to speak out against terrorism – Government and nongovernmental experts will discuss what support victims require to be able to choose to engage in efforts to counter violent extremism and how to ensure implementers are sensitive to their ongoing healing process. Moderator – Christina Nemr, Global Center on Cooperative Security <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Dewirini Anggraeni, Program Director of Center for Pesantren and Democracy Studies (CePDeS) affiliates with Sisters against Violent Extremism (SAVE)</li> <li>• Max Boon, Co-Founder, Aliansi Indonesia Damai (AIDA)</li> </ul>
15:00-15:30	Concluding remarks by the Co-chairs <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Wilson R. Victorio, Executive Director, Anti-Terrorism Council-Program Management Center</li> <li>• John Foster, Bureau of Counterterrorism and Countering Violent Extremism, U.S. Department of State</li> </ul>